

Head of School Notes

Dear Students and Parents,

I hope that slowly but surely a kind of routine is setting in. Hearing from other international schools around the world, it will take around 2 weeks for all this to become "the new normal". Heads up, everyone. We can do this!

Just a quick reminder that during this time, email will remain our primary means of communications with the home, but we are also expanding our reach via social media. You can read news and updates on our Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/iszeducation> and we now have an Instagram account @isz_zanzibar. Please follow us to stay on top with important information.

We now also have a dedicated ISZ YouTube Channel. We will be uploading various videos here. For Bookweek, we are posting 2 videos per day. See below for more information. Our channel is called "ISZ Zanzibar" https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCK0IVyJI0B\_o2PcRYeIWDZQ

We are still accepting SCHOLASTIC BOOK ORDERS until Friday. You can drop off your order at the office M-F between 9am and 3pm.

Yours Sincerely,

Dr. James W. Pilton

We will be uploading 2 books a day for the next 8 days. Please watch them. Then, on Friday, April 3rd, you will get to vote which book/author you liked best.

Enjoy!

PS: Middle & High School students, yes, these are mostly for little kids, but there is nothing preventing you from enjoying this as well ;-)

ISZ Middle School Student Testimonial

"I really like how the online school is going, even though our class should be more quiet during class.

Online school has some benefits like:

You can work at home

More silence

More comfy

But sometimes it could be like:

Not organised

Forgetting about the time

I really like how it's going so far and I'm satisfied with my classes.

ISZ Students Doing PE At Home

Mr. Vadim has been posting PE assignments. Here is how some ISZ students are doing these at home.

Please also stay posted for PE videos on our new ISZ YouTube channel.
